

PROPOSED 2014 ECOLOGY CAMP PROGRAM AND SCHEDULE
Marine Corp Base Hawaii, Kaneohe – Mokapu Peninsula
15-17 February, 2014
(Final)

Sat. Feb 15

- 0900-0930 Arrival of camp participants to Pacific War Memorial parking lot. Host will meet participants at H-3 gate to facilitate temporary vehicle passes for the weekend. Proceed to the Pacific War Memorial parking lot (left turn just inside gate).
- 0930-1000 Welcome aboard, introductions, briefings by military host and Ecology Camp staff at Pacific War Memorial parking lot.
- 1000-1130 Transit to designated campsites at Hale Koa Beach. Unload equipment and set up tents.
Lunch (Bring Your Own).
- 1130-1200 Camp participants to meet with leaders and resource personnel in their respective study groups. Each group will proceed to their designated study areas. Study Groups will be rotated through each study site.
- 1200-1500 Environmental Ecology and Hawaiian Cultural Study Groups
 1. SEA BIRD FIELD STUDY – Todd Russell, MCB Hawaii (Student Group A)
 2. GEOLOGY TOUR – Dr. Michael O.Garcia, UH Manoa (Student Group B)
 3. FOSSIL BIRD STUDY - Ms Molly Hageman, Bishop Museum (Student Group B)
- 1500 Arrive at Hale Koa Beach. Clean up and prepare for dinner and evening program.
- 1545 Depart for dinner at Anderson Hall (request military transportation to Dining Facilities).
- 1600-1700 Dinner at Anderson Hall.
- 1800-2000 Evening program. Kimi Werner (speaker); Lance Bookless, Natural and Cultural Resources of Mokapu Peninsula
- 2000-2230 Free time – snack time, campfire, stargazing, night fishing.
- 2300 LIGHTS OUT!

Sun Feb 16

- 0630 Camp wake up. Pack daypacks for all day service projects.
- 0700-0745 Breakfast at camp.
- 0800 Assemble for transportation to service projects.
- 0830-1130 Service Project – Shearwater Nesting Area: Removing Pluchea with Sierra Club Volunteers.
(dress for work : long pants, long sleeve shirt, gloves, covered shoes, hat, water)
- 1130-1200 Lunch
- 1200-1430 Archeology Tour at base site near airfield
Lauhala Weaving Demonstration at camp site
- 1500 Clean up, prepare for dinner and evening activities
- 1545 Depart for dinner at Anderson Hall (request military transportation to Dining Facility).
- 1600-1700 Dinner at Anderson Hall.
- 1800-2100 Social activity at campsite
- 2100-2300 Free time – snack time, campfire, stargazing, night fishing.
- 2300 LIGHTS OUT!!

Mon Feb 17

- 0700 Camp wake up.
- 0815-0900 Evaluation and Group Activity
- 0900-1000 Break camp
- 1000-1130 Brunch at Anderson Hall
- 1130-1200 Final farewells and departure from MCBH.